CLARIFICATION OF FILING DEADLINE FOR PETITIONS FOR RECONSIDERATION OF THE CMRS LOCAL NUMBER PORTABILITY FORBEARANCE ORDER

WT Docket No. 98-229

CC Docket No. 95-116

On February 9, 1999, the Federal Communications Commission (Commission) released an order addressing a Petition for Forbearance filed by the Cellular Telecommunications Industry Association concerning implementation of local number portability by commercial mobile radio service (CMRS) providers. Cellular Telecommunications Industry Association's Petition for Forbearance From Commercial Mobile Radio Services Number Portability Obligations, Memorandum Opinion and Order, WT Docket No. 98-229, CC Docket No. 95-116, FCC 99-19, (Released February 9, 1999) (Forbearance Order).

Several parties have sought clarification of the deadline for filing petitions to reconsider the Forbearance Order. Because the order includes amended rules that will be published in the Federal Register, we clarify that pursuant to 47 CFR §§ 1.4(b) and 1.429, petitions for reconsideration of the Forbearance Order may be filed within thirty days of publication of the amended rules and a summary of the order in the Federal Register.

For further information, contact David Furth, Wireless Telecommunications Bureau, at (202) 418-0632.
